

Property Of:

Over-excavation: The process of removing the loose native material to process and re-compact to achieve a compacted stratum for house to bear upon in an effort to minimize settlement of the structure.

